The 2025 Business Plan Competition Hosted at CSU Dominguez Hills Was a Huge Success

Project ECHO's annual Teen Entrepreneurs Business Plan Competition is a "Shark-Tank-Style" capstone event for a semester-long business/entrepreneurship program. Students worked in teams to identify a community-based problem, ideate a solution, and transform it into a product or service followed by an actionable business plan and pitch deck. More than 50 teams from several states are expected to compete in person or virtually on Zoom, with 10 teams winning college scholarships.

This premier event connects 500+ attendees, including students, educators, and industry leaders.

Sponsorships help underwrite the event and fund scholarship awards.
